

“Anyone working with college-bound students should take this course.”

Counseling in the College Selection Process

Where counselors and college advisers learn about college readiness, access, selection, application, funding, and completion.

College is Yours
IN 600 WORDS OR LESS

Letters of recommendation, student essays, developing a college list, group programs, paying for college, developing group programs, working with families, and more.

Available for 3 graduate credits through University of Sioux Falls

Completely Online Course June 25- August 3

Taught by Dr. Patrick O'Connor, past president of NACAC.

For more information, contact collegeisyours@comcast.net